NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. Frederick Green has been visiting at the house of Mr. Robert Beach for a few days.

Mr. Robert S. Rudd has ordered plans for a coachman's house. Mr. Hazlett is the architect.

Mr. A. R. Brewer is having plans prepared for a very tasteful stable, by J. H. Lockwood of Montclair.

Glen Ridge now has a representative on the Town Committee and hopes to get a small part of its road taxes spent on its highways.

Commencing to-morrow evening, the Rev. S. W. Duffield will preach a series of sermons on the "Labor Question." All are invited.

"Where-Whither," an article under "Literary Notes" in this number of THE CITIZEN, is worthy of the special consideration of all our readers.

Wednesday was ladies' day at the Glen Ridge Club, and a large number of ladies availed themselves of the privileges of the reading room.

Mr. Theo. M. Nevius will build a handsome house on Ridgewood avenue, this summer. The plans are completed and work will probably begin soon.

Mr. Joseph D. Gallagher proposes building two houses on Clark street this spring which are expected to be examples of small and tasteful cottages.

The fourteen acre lot on Hillside avenue, formerly owned by Mr. James Moore of Belleville has been purchased by Messrs. A. G. Darwin and Joseph D. Gallagher.

A Bloomfield carpenter recently spent four days in getting a piece of black walnut six inches by two feet in size. How long would it take him to build a house.

Attention of those desiring to purchase the Dairy Stock, etc., is directed to advertisement of Auction Sale of Farmiloe Place Dairy on our third page.

A very pleasant sociable was given by some of the young people on Tuesday night at the house of Miss Van Winkle. About twenty-five were present and the evening was passed in dancing and other amusements.

Was Shakespeare Shakespeare? will be the subject under discussion in Mr. Duffield's English literature class last Tuesday evening, March 16. It is understood that members of the class are at liberty to invite friends to be present.

An informal but very pleasant reception was given by the Glen Ridge Club to its members and the ladies of their families on Monday night. The weather, which had been stormy during the day, cleared off and the house was well filled. Whiskey and billiards served to those the company who stayed until about twelve o'clock. These receptions were repeated at short intervals throughout the year.

An election for School Trustees will be held on Tuesday next at the Centre School house, Belleville avenue. Two trustees are to be elected for three years, and an additional trustee to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Chabrier Peloulet. The terms of Messrs. Thomas Oakes and Mr. Wm. A. Baldwin expire, they having served for the past three years. Mr. Samuel Peloulet has served for two months past through appointment of the County Superintendent. All three gentlemen are eligible for re-appointment.

The Hope Chapel, which has been closed for several weeks for repairs, was opened last Sunday. Extensive improvements to the interior have just been completed. The walls and woodwork have been painted in colors, a paper frieze run round the room beneath the cornices, and shades placed over the windows; giving the room an air of attractiveness and beauty heretofore lacking. A large number of the friends of the school were present to witness the opening. Mr. Broughton, the Superintendent, conducted the service. The school steadily maintains its numbers and interest, and is doing a good and useful work.

—House hunters will find it to their advantage to read Mr. Peele's advertisement.

—Rev. George Duffield, D. D. will address the meeting of the Gospel Temperance Union to-morrow afternoon in the First Baptist Church.

—Members of the Building and Loan Association would do well to see Mr. Peele's advertisement in our advertising columns.

—Mr. Townsend, who has been living for a year on Hillside avenue, has decided to move to New York.

—Mr. John Tenney desires to rent his house on Clark street, furnished, for a year.

—The Rev. Jeremiah Murry of Brooklyn will preach in the St. Marks M. E. Church, Bloomfield avenue, Sunday, March 14, morning and evening. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the morning.

—General Manager Halstead and Superintendent Reasoner, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, made a tour of inspection of the Montclair branch of the road on Monday.

—A number of ladies of the Glen Ridge Sunday-school are contemplating the erection of a Chapel which will be situated somewhere on lands belonging to Mr. Benson. The plans are being prepared by R. N. Anderson.

—On Wednesday an errand cow belonging to a gentleman of Glen Ridge visited, informally, most of his neighbors, followed, it would be untrue to say accompanied, by his coachman. Her owner having other use for his man had procured a new rope.

—A horse and wagon belonging to John Vreeland, the milk dealer of this place, became frightened at a train on Wednesday, while standing near the railroad, on Broad street, and started at break-neck speed down to the centre of the town, to Linden avenue, where, in rounding a corner, the wagon was upset and the milk and money scattered. The wagon was demolished and the horse badly injured. The loss will reach about $100.

—The annual meeting of the congregation of the Park M. E. church was held Wednesday evening. The Treasurer's report showed $1,384.51 received, $1,374.15 expended, leaving a balance on hand of $10.36. The floating indebtedness of the church was reported to be $135.07, and the bonded indebtedness $7,000. The following trustees were elected: W. A. Francis, Albert Field, Wm. H. Martin, Wm. Bromley, J. W. Snedeker, Joseph Cooper, Lewis Dawkins, Jesse I. Taylor, T. W. Langstroth.

—It will be remembered that when Messrs. Funk & Wagnalls published "The Bunting Ball," more than a year ago, they offered a prize of $1,000 to the person, or persons, who would correctly guess the author's name. A circular was sent out March 1st, containing a list of two hundred and fifty-eight names of those who had surmised correctly. Each person will thus receive $387, upon condition that the name of the author is kept secret for the present, he being unwilling to have it made known in this connection. Miss Kate B. Dalrymple is the only one, in Bloomfield, whose conjecture has proved to be correct, although a number of persons made an attempt at solving the mystery.

—The illustrated lecture on the Battle of Gettysburg promises to be of great interest to young and old. The Rev. Mr. Simons, who delivers this lecture, participated in this as well as many other battles and was an eyewitness to many of the scenes to be pictured next Friday evening. His lecture has been carefully prepared from official information and statements of officers and others who took part in the conflict. The pictures are unusually fine and will illustrate incidents of the conflict and the prominent officers who commanded. From all we can learn the entertainment is bound to be a success and those who attend will be amply rewarded.

The Prohibition Demand.

BLOOMFIELD, MARCH 5TH, 1886.

To the Republican Primary.—Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:—The Bloomfield Prohibition League, representing a considerable number of voters, and believing that the sentiments of our citizens are best represented by men in office who do not sympathize with the liquor traffic, hereby express the desire and hope that this Republican Primary will nominate men such as the temperance men in all parties can vote for.

If this meeting recognizes the conscientious sentiment of a large number of our citizens, and chooses to nominate men who do not sympathize with the liquor traffic, nor frequent saloons, either to procure liquor or to secure votes, and who will not sign applications for licenses for saloons, or so-called hotels, its course will meet the approval of many voters and obviate the necessity of placing an independent ticket in the field.

Very respectfully yours,
EDMUND A. SMITH, Pres.
HENRY RUSSELL, V. P.
F. R. BACHELDER, Sec.

Township Politics.

THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY.

Dodd's Hall last Friday night was filled to overflowing by Republicans and others of all sorts, sizes, kinds and colors. The air was full of electricity and tobacco smoke. Printed tickets were supplied to all as they came in. Those who in former times regarded printed tickets at a primary as prima facie evidence of jobbery had for the most part evidently changed their minds.

Mr. Cook was elected chairman and Mr. W. A. Baldwin secretary. Mr. Walter Freeman moved that no one be allowed to vote except those who voted for the Republican member of Assembly last fall. This produced a very loud silence. Mr. Barrett broke the silence by offering an amendment to the effect that those who had not voted at all be excepted from the operation of this motion. Mr. Freeman accepted the amendment. After more silence, Mr. Russell offered an amendment that all those be allowed to vote who intended to vote the Republican ticket at the coming election. Dr. Richards rose to enquire if the intention was a present intention or one that was to hold good until after the election day.

The chairman ruled that an abiding intention was the only one the meeting could recognize. Dr. Richards then wished to know what was meant by a Republican ticket—a ticket made by a Republican name on it made after the primary. Mr. Russell declared his meaning to be that all who voted in the primary should be bound to support the ticket there made. The amendment was then put and carried by a large majority. Mr. Wheeler made a motion that all the names on the printed ticket be considered in nomination and then such other nominations be made as might be desired. Mr. Jones and ten or twelve others seemed to think this endangered the free actions of citizens and the other 390 feeling good natured waited patiently while the names were read off from the printed ballots and put in nomination one by one.

Before the nominations were made, the clerk read a communication from the Bloomfield Prohibition League, requesting that no man who signed a license or went to a saloon either for a drink or a vote should be nominated; which course on the part of the Republicans would obviate the necessity on the part of the League of nominating a ticket of their own. Mr. Barrett said this communication was in the nature of a threat and should be stamped with the disapproval of the meeting, and therefore moved that it be laid on the table. Motion carried by overwhelming majority.

During the nominating, Mr. E. F. Farland's Republicanism was questioned but no one could certify to his opinion and he was nominated for Township Clerk. Mr. E. A. Smith on the contrary was rejected as Commissioner of Appeals on the ground that he was no longer a Republican. A few printers also objected to the old Freeholders because they had not voted to suit them on some motion made in the Board of Freeholders. Mr. McGowan and Mr. Cadmus were nominated by acclamation by a vote unanimous, saving a dozen votes of the kind mentioned. The ticket made was elected at the polls.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

The Democratic Primary, so misnamed, for it was neither "Democratic" nor a "Primary" was held on Monday night at Dodd's Hall and resulted in the nominations of the ticket defeated on Tuesday. The defeat was the proper and only legitimate result of the methods employed to nominate the ticket.

The Primary was not called until Monday night, the eve of election day. A slate had been prepared by some persons, certainly not the bulk of the voters. This ticket was pushed through without debate or change, on the plea that the time was so short.

This may be the politics of the Democratic machine in Bloomfield, but it is not "Democratic" politics, and the rebuke it received at the polls was fitting and deserved.

For the first time in two years there is no nominee of the Democratic party on the Town Committee.

Montclair Memoranda.

About 5.30 o'clock Tuesday morning a fire broke out in the lower portion of the bell tower, which was enclosed and used as a look-up. As no alarm could be rung only a small number of the fire department turned out, and the lower portion of the tower was completely burned before the firemen could extinguish the flames. The bell tower came down with a crash, but the framework of the tower still remains standing. The fire is believed to have started from an overheated stove.

Thousands of dead fish are to be seen floating in Lake Hopatcong. It is believed that the mortality is caused by the discharge of the waste acids into the lake from the powder works.

ORANGE.

The ball of the Essex County Toboggan Club in Music Hall, Friday evening, was a fitting close of a brilliant social season in the Oranges. The hall was elaborately and appropriately decorated. The stage was set with a toboggan slide, beneath which was an artificial ice groto. The stage appeared to be covered with snow, with a toboggan suit arranged in the centre, while toboggans were arranged about the hall, and even the canopy from the door to the gutter was composed of toboggans. A floor for dancing was laid over the parquetry and over the stage. There were over three hundred well-known society people present from the Oranges, Newark and New York. Dancing was begun at 10 o'clock, when Lander's orchestra rendered the "Amorita Lancers." A handsomely decorated table was spread in the upper hall and supper was served by Davis.

On Saturday burglars tried to enter the houses of Mr. E. B. Mishard and Mr. William Duff, both on Clinton street.

Labor Items.

A meeting was held at Moorestown on Thursday for the purpose of organizing a stock company to engage in the manufacture of shoes. A Mount Holly man made a conference with the leaders of the movement, and he will probably remove his plant to that place.

The real estate owners of Mount Holly have formed an association to protect themselves against non-paying tenants.

The building contractors of Camden will concede the demands of the bricklayers for 35 cents an hour, or $3.50 per day, and the adoption of the nine-hour system.

The Dover rolling mill employees have been making better time for over six months past than at any time since the fall of 1882.

If the workmen would only stand together as solidly on all political issues affecting their interests as they stood together in the recent successful strike, what reforms in legislation might not be accomplished!—Star.

In that case what would become of the party which has recently assailed American labor by crushing a great shipbuilder into bankruptcy, by letting out government work to be performed by convicts, by proposing to go to Europe for steam engines, and by preparing for a general rail on protected industries?—Wash. Republican.

A DUCOBERT'S VERDICT: "During 30 years drug business, never have I sold an article giving such universal satisfaction as Palmer's 'Skin-Success.'
